

U.S. SECRET SERVICE STRATEGIC PLAN

FY 2000 – FY 2005

IN BRIEF

VISION STATEMENT

"Building on a tradition of excellence and meeting the challenges of the future... the United States Secret Service protects our nation's leaders, visiting world leaders, national special security events, and the integrity of the nation's currency and financial systems."

MISSION STATEMENT

The United States Secret Service is mandated by the U.S. Congress and other executive orders to carry out two distinct and significant missions: protection and criminal investigations. The Secret Service is responsible for: the protection of the President, the Vice President, and their families, heads of state, and other designated individuals; the investigation of threats against these protectees; protection of the White House, Vice President's Residence, Foreign Missions, and other buildings within Washington, D.C.; and security design, planning, and implementation at designated National Special Security Events. The Secret Service is also responsible for the enforcement of laws relating to counterfeiting of obligations and securities of the United States, investigation of financial crimes including, but not limited to access device fraud, financial institution fraud, financial identity theft, computer fraud, and computer based attacks against aspects of our nation's financial, banking, and telecommunications infrastructure.
